THE EVENING DISPATCH.
PROVO CITY, - AUG. 13, 1895

The principal discussion at the meeting of the democratic territorial central committee held in Salt Lake yesterday (Monday) outside of strictly practical campaign matters, came up over the proposition to nominate United States senators in the state convention. The resolution, the substance of which is embodied in the call of the committee, published elsewhere, was introduced by H. V. Meloy and there was a great deal of talk over the expediency of the matter. There was a strong opposition favoring the taking of no action whatever in the matter and there were a number of amendments and substitutes proposed. The contest developed its chief excitement from the fact that the committee was nearly equally divided on the subject and it could not be told just which way the decision would turn. However, in the end, after the whole matter had been gone over, it was decided that it would be at least a good move to call the attention of the people to the subject and let them voice their opinion.

"I had a bad case of catarrh. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and purchased a bottle. I have used four bottles and am almost entirely cured."

The Herald claims that a Salt Lake lady had the honor of being the first female to register. The Dispatch contradicted and said that the ladies, Mrs. W. N. Dusenberry and her daughter, were the first to register, they having done so early on Monday last. Now comes a correspondent from Thistle, R. W. Westwood, who says that that honor belongs to Thistle, R. W. Mitchell of that place took the oath at 7:30 a. m., on Monday August 6, 1895.

The Provo Book & Stationery company have just received a new work—25 cent series—on the silver question that every farmer and other interested in the financial question should read. It is written and published by S. S. King of Chicago and is entitled "A Few Financial Facts." The book is a series of kindergarten lessons on the silver question with sixty-two illustrative diagrams, showing clearly the misfortunes that have come to the people, the causes that produce them, and the remedy that will remove them. The book is written in a very entertaining, easy reading style, and contains information that every man, woman and child in the west should be in possession of.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

R. G. W. No. 2 at Franklin this morning ran into a one horse vehicle that was crossing the track, demolishing the car and killing the horse instantly. The occupant of the buggy, a Mr. Nielson, was badly shaken and received a couple of very serious scalp wounds and other bruises. It was miraculous that he was not killed. Superintendent Wells called an engine to a car and took the injured man up to the Holy Cross hospital at Salt Lake.

Public meetings advertised for the first three evenings of this week have been postponed until next week. LOGAN PAUL pleaded guilty yesterday evening before Justice Booth to the charge of assault preferred against him by Walter Jenkins. The case was not an aggravated one, and a nominal fine, only $2.00, was imposed. Provo's base ball team is crossing bats again today with the Draper team on the Lehi diamond.

STILL IT'S HOT.

What a Prominent Insurance Man Says.

H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 217 N. 3d St., St. Louis, writes: I had been led with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my sister, who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommend this syrup to my friends. John Cranston, 398 Hampshire street, Quincy, Ill., writes: I have found Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 50c. Sold by Smoot Drug company.

BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN PEAKS

Ranier, Shasta, Hood and other Fine Mountains of the Far Northwest.

About 50 miles south of Tacoma you get a view of the most beautiful mountain peak on the earth's surface, Mount Tacoma, or Ranier, and carry it with you for three or four hours. It rises directly from the tide level to a height of 14,444 feet, unhidden by intervening ranges or foothills, and stands squarely against the sky, the perfection of magnificence, dignity and power. It is two and one-half times as high as Mount Washington, and I believe the highest peak in the world that rises directly from a plain. It is known to us in the west as Mount Ranier and was named in honor of Admiral Ranier of the British navy, but here they call it Mount Tacoma, the old title given by the Siwah Indians before the white man came. The base is covered with a dense forest of ever living green. Above the timber line the snow is white and smooth and perpetual, and it looks as if it were a solid block of the purest marble.

Mount Tacoma is just two feet higher than Mount Shasta, 397 feet higher than Pike's peak and 400 feet higher than Gardiner's peak. The highest in the United States, Mount Crillon, Alaska, is over 16,000, but an exact measurement has never been taken. Mount St. Elias, Alaska, is 15,327; Mount Whitney, California, is 15,088; and Mount Williams, California, is 14,400. There are several other very beautiful peaks visible from the railway, including St. Helen, 9,750 feet, the patron saint of Portland, around whose head hangs a perpetual halo; Mount Hood, which is a shapely cone, 11,225 feet, which was named in honor of Lord Hood of the British admiralty, and Mount Baker, 10,800 feet, christened in honor of Joseph Baker, one of the lieutenants of Peter Puget, who discovered the sound. Theodore Whitthrop has written lovingly about them, and they are the subject of the prettiest and choicest descriptions that exist in the classic prose of Washington Irving, although I believe he was never nearer them than his home on the Hudson river, 3,000 miles away.—Chicago Record.

MEXICAN LANDS
Thirty Thousand Acres of Excellent Land at a Low Price and Upon Easy Terms—Intending Purchasers Should Write to Mr. Britton Davis at Corralitos State of Chihuahua, Mexico.

For sale 34,000 acres of land, a part of the Boca Grande Grant, situated in the northwest part of the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, near the U. S. boundary line, 30 miles due south of Deming, New Mexico; one and a half miles on each side of the Casa Grande river, and having a range of at least 75,000 acres.

This tract affords a range with permanent water, unsurpassed, an examination is invited.

The title is direct from the Mexican government.

This is a fine cattle country, and the land is located so that with suitable dams and ditches a large portion of it can be put under cultivation. It is owned by responsible Americans, who desire to dispose of it to settle the estate of the principal owner who recently died.

It was acquired with a view to the organization of a colonization company.

A large and prosperous Mormon settlement is situated adjoining the above tract, and that circumstance makes this tract of great value and interest to the people of Utah. It would be well for some of our capitalists to investigate this matter.
